Tiffany Reading Room Trip

The Tiffany Reading Room is an historic and artistic space, associated with Irvington's Public Library but located in Village Hall. The Reading Room was designed by the artist and decorator Louis Comfort Tiffany. It opened in 1902 and was fully restored in 2012. It features glowing "turtleback" lanterns, gleaming mosaics, and gilded quotations carved into heavy ceiling beams. This trip is part of a monthly series featuring sites of interest along the Old Croton Aqueduct.
